

Position: Summer Instructor - Summer Camp & Youth Learn to Row

The ERC is a successful club that provides a community environment to foster a passion for the sport of rowing and support athlete development. Founded in 1972 on the shores of the North Saskatchewan River, the ERC provides year-round competitive and recreational rowing programs for all skill levels. Athletes from the ERC compete successfully at local, national and world levels. The ERC takes pride in developing high-level athletes as well as giving Edmontonians the chance to experience the joy of rowing through rowing instruction, training, and youth summer camp programs from our home in Edmonton's scenic river valley. We are looking for positive and energetic Summer Instructors for the 2025 summer season.

About this position

The Edmonton Rowing Club (ERC) is seeking Summer Instructors who shall be responsible for coaching and educating Youth Learn to Row and Summer Camp participants in the basics of rowing. Summer Instructors provide an enjoyable experience that will encourage participants to become further involved with the Edmonton Rowing Club. The goal of a Summer Instructor is to create a fun atmosphere for participants through confident instruction, enthusiasm, and safety. Their interaction with summer program participants will be central to the impressions of the ERC and the sport of rowing formed by newcomers with the purpose of encouraging increased membership at the ERC. The Summer Instructor is a role model for newcomers as well as experienced athletes, and their ability to handle stressful situations in a mature manner along with strong conflict resolution skills are paramount in ensuring that everyone at the ERC has a fun and successful summer. The Summer Instructor will work collaboratively with a team of summer staff to provide quality programs at the ERC between May and August. The Summer Instructor reports directly to the Club Manager.
